1. The subject matter of this Petition is the Edward G. Fiedler and Martha A Fiedler Irrevocable Trust Agreement dated June 1, 1993 (the "Trust"). A copy of the Trust is on file with the Court and made a part of this Petition.

2. Martha A. Fiedler (deceased December 19, 2020) and her husband, Edward G. Fiedler (deceased August 4, 1993), created the Trust together on June 1, 1993, appointing Jean M. Fiedler and Alicen M. Barrett as co-trustees.

6. Minnesota Statute § 256B.15, subd. 1a, which describes estates subject to claims, includes "the person's probate estate" and "assets conveyed to a survivor, heir, or assign of the person through survivorship, living trust, transfer-on-death of title or deed, or other arrangements." Minn. Stat. § 256B.15, subd. 1a(b) (1) and (5).

7. A living trust is defined as a trust which is operative during the life of the settlor. Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition. The Edward G. Fiedler and Martha A Fiedler Irrevocable Trust Agreement dated June 1, 1993 (the "Trust") is a living trust.

8. Martha A. Fiedler, Trustor, had a beneficial interest in the trust estate during the period of time she received MA and at the time of her death.

9. Article 2a of the Trust directs the trustees to pay the entire net income from the Trust Estate in monthly or other convenient installments to the Trustors or either of them.

10. Article 2b of the Trust provides Trustors an additional beneficial interest of up to $10,000.00 per year (up to $2,000 monthly) at the discretion of the trustees.

11. Article 2d of the Trust provides Trustors the right to live in the real property placed in the Trust rent free for so long as they or either of them wished.

17. An accounting of the trust pursuant to § 501C.0202, subd. 8, is necessary in order for the court to confirm actions taken by the trustee, approve the account, and approve payments to be charged against the trust.

18. The Trustees have agreed to the jurisdiction of this Court.

G.1. Conduct public hearing for Interim Use Permit request submitted by Development Services, Inc., Roseville, Minnesota on behalf of Ray Froehle and Julie Froehle, Cold Spring, Minnesota

A public hearing was held for consideration of a request submitted by Development Services, Inc., Roseville MN, on behalf of Ray Froehle and Julie Froehle, Cold Spring MN, to amend Interim Use Permit (IUP) P-024690 to extend the expiration date of their solar garden from December 31, 2048 to December 31, 2060. The property is part of the NW1/4 in Section 12, lying south of Greystone Road in Wakefield Township (123/30). Angie Berg, Environmental Services Supervisor, provided a brief overview. She stated no correspondences were received. Chair Clark opened the public hearing for public comment. Heidi Stalboeger, Wakefield Township Clerk, stated their Township Planning Commission reviewed the request even though they are not responsible for permitting. She stated both the Wakefield Township Planning Commission and the Township Board did not take a position nor forward a recommendation on this request to the Stearns County Planning Commission. Richard Blenkush, member of the Stearns County Planning Commission, stated he abstained on the vote, neither in favor or not in favor, on the proposed request because he has learned any decision should not be based on the financial impact of an applicant. However, he commented he feels producing electricity does not belong on agricultural property. Isabelle Froehle, Cold Spring MN, speaking on behalf of Eddie and Ray Froehle, stated the property where the solar garden will be located is low land and is difficult to farm. An extension would help financially with the farm moving forward. Brian Koenig, Roseville MN, stated this property is perfect for a solar garden because it is hidden from the road and is not taking farmland out of production. He also stated Xcel Energy is slow in reviewing applications and supply chain issues are delaying the project and taking time away from production, which is the reason for requesting an extension. Vince Robinson, Development Services, stated this property is ideal for solar due to it being on a dead-end road and not visible from the road, cannot be developed for residential or commercial use due to it being in a low area and not ideal for farming. He also stated extending the useful life of this property will benefit the environment by providing pollinator habitat, filtration for the water system that is present and better use of property instead of farming. No one else came forward to be heard therefore Chair Clark closed the public hearing. Motion was made and seconded to approve the extension of the expiration date of the IUP to December 31, 2060.
