Rockville Remember...

Here's one of Rockville's oldest surviving gals (& her dad)! Doris (Schneider) Smith (currently 98) and Herb Schneider. I believe that's Herb's car, a 1946 Chevolet... but the picture date is 1954(?). That's gramma Dockendorf's house in the background, located behind & east of the Post Office on Main Street. Call me if any of this is wrong. Doris lives in Assumption Court now in Cold Spring; enjoying "retirement", coloring, visiting and drinking coffee!! Enjoy the memories Tудie 252-3017!

Voting Began for November 4th Local Elections

Find out what's on your ballot and where you vote at mnvotes.gov/pollfinder

Voting season began in Minnesota on September 19th for the November 4th local elections. There are 38 city and school district regular elections on ballots around the state in addition to 79 special elections. Voters can find out if there is an election in their area, view a sample ballot, and find their polling place at mnvotes.gov/pollfinder.

Minnesota's no-excuse absentee voting law allows for eligible voters to cast their ballot starting 46 days before the election.

New this year for local elections, registered voters can request an absentee ballot online and the deadline for returning absentee ballots has changed to 5 p.m. on Election Day. For those voting in mail ballot only areas, ballots can still be returned until 8 p.m. on election day. Absentee and mail ballots can be returned by mail or hand-delivered to the voter's local election office.

Know your rights:

- You have a right to take time off work to vote anytime during the absentee voting period or on Election Day without losing your pay, personal leave, or vacation time.

- You have the right to vote if you are in line at a polling place on Election Day before 8 p.m.

- You have the right to register to vote on Election Day if you can show the required proof of identity and residence.

- You have the right to vote if you are otherwise eligible and not currently incarcerated for a felony conviction.
