sheriff's sale. The sheriff's sale is scheduled for April 22, 2026 at 10:00 a.m. at the Stearns County Sheriff's Office, 807 Courthouse Square, St. Cloud, MN 56303.

Foreclosure is a complex process. People may contact you with advice and offers to help "save" your home.

Remember: It is important that you learn as much as you can about foreclosure and your situation. Find out about all your options before you make any agreements with anyone about the foreclosure of your home.

Getting Help
As soon as possible, you should contact your lender at the above number to talk about things you might be able to do to prevent foreclosure. You should also consider contacting the foreclosure prevention counselor in your area. A foreclosure prevention counselor can answer your questions, offer free advice, and help you create a plan which makes sense for your situation.

Contact the Minnesota Home Ownership Center at 651-659-9336 or 866-462-6466 or www.hocmn.org or contact the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development at 1-800-569-4287 or www.hud.gov to get the phone number and location of the nearest certified counseling organization. Call today. The longer you wait, the fewer options you may have for a desirable result.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THE FORECLOSURE SALE
After the sheriff's sale, you have the right to "redeem." Redeem means that you pay the amount bid for your house at the sheriff's sale, plus interest and costs, to keep your house. You can keep living in your home for a period of time after the foreclosure sale. This is called a "redemption period." The redemption period is six (6) months after the sheriff's sale.

At the end of the redemption period, if you do not redeem or sell, you will have to leave your home. If you do not leave, the person or company that bid on your home at the sheriff's sale has the right to file an eviction against you in court.

Be Careful of Foreclosure Scams

Be careful! After the foreclosure sale, people may approach you to buy your house or ask you to transfer your house to them for little or no money.

Before you give up the rights to your house or sign any documents (including a deed), be sure you know how much the house sold for at the sheriff's sale and decide if you can save the house by paying the amount of the bid, plus interest and costs.

How to Find Out How Much Your House Sold For at the Foreclosure Sale

The amount you need to pay to redeem your house may be less than the amount you owed on the mortgage before the sale. You can learn what this amount is (and who the winning bidder at the sale was) by attending the sheriff's sale or by contacting the sheriff's office after the sale.

FORECLOSURE: ADVICE TO TENANTS

You are renting in a property that is in foreclosure. Minnesota law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

The assessment lien foreclosure does not change the terms of your lease. You and your landlord must continue to follow the terms of your lease, including the rights and responsibilities of you and your landlord. You must keep paying rent unless you have a legal reason to withhold it. Your landlord must keep the property repaired. Utilities must be paid under the terms of your lease or under state law.

Moving out of the property early might be a violation of your lease. The date of the sheriff's foreclosure sale is in the attached foreclosure notice. In most cases you do not need to move from the property before the sheriff's foreclosure sale. Read your lease to see if it says anything about foreclosure and about the rights you may have if the property is in foreclosure. If you have a month-to-month lease, the foreclosure notice does not change the rules for ending your lease. You and your landlord must still give legal notice to end your lease.

In most cases, your landlord has six months after the date of the sheriff's foreclosure sale to pay off the lien. This is called the "redemption period." Read the attached foreclosure notice to determine the length of the redemption period. You cannot be asked to move during the redemption period except for lease violations or if your lease expires during the redemption period. If your landlord stops the foreclosure, you may not have to move from the property. If your landlord does not stop the foreclosure, there will be a new owner of the property at the end of the redemption period.

The new owner may have the legal right to ask you to move even if your lease is not over. But, the new owner must still give you a written notice stating that the new owner wants you to move.

Do not wait to get information about foreclosure. Foreclosure is a complicated process. It is important you learn about your rights as a renter when there is a foreclosure. You may have fewer options if you wait too long. There are government agencies and nonprofit organizations that you may contact for helpful information about the foreclosure process. For the name and telephone number of an organization near you, please call the legal aid office or bar association of-office in your county. You also can find information on tenant rights at HOME Line at (866) 866-3546 and Law Help Minnesota at <http://LawHelpMN.org>. The state of Minnesota does not guarantee the advice of these agencies and organizations.

"icon' foods of the holiday, but rarely in Ireland. Soda bread, Irish stew and beef pies are also enjoyed as the holiday meal. If you've never made Corned Beef and Cabbage, here is a recipe you just might enjoy!

Corned Beef and Cabbage

Most grocers sell a "packaged" brisket that has been brined and spiced and includes a small packet of spices for your convenience.

Ingredients:
1-brisket, 2-4 pounds (can be pre-packaged variety)

5 or 6 large carrots, cut into large chunks

5-6 potatoes, preferably reds or Yukon Jacks (they are a more waxy type of potato that hold up better as they cook)

1 medium onion, chopped

1 teaspoon of dry mustard

1 teaspoon of thyme

1 teaspoon of parsley (optional)

1 head of cabbage, cleaned and cut into quarters

Salt and pepper to taste
In a large pot or crock pot, add the brisket, spices, onion and carrots and cover with cold water, bring to a boil and lower heat (set crock pot on low) and simmer for about an hour. Skim fat as needed.

Add cabbage and continue to "slow cook" for another 1-2 hours until meat and vegetables are tender. Cut meat across the grain and serve with vegetables and enjoy with a side of horseradish. You may even want to serve with your favorite Guinness or ale and a hunk of hearty bread! Yummy!

For a Wee Bit of Irish Fun:

The Legend of St. Patrick:

Good St. Patrick travelled far, to teach God's Holy Word

And when he came to Erin's sod, a wondrous thing occurred

He plucked a shamrock from the earth and held it in His hand

To symbolize the Trinity that all might understand

The first leaf for the Father

And the second for the

Son

The third leaf for the Holy Spirit

All three of them in one.

An Irish Blessing:

May the road rise to meet you,

May the wind be always at your back,

May the sun shine warm upon your face,

The rains fall soft upon your fields and,

Until we meet again,

May God hold you in the palm of His hand.

Wee Bit of Humor~

The phone rings and Father O'Reilly answers. An official voice on the other end of the line says:

"Is this Father O'Reilly?"

"It Is."

"This is the Revenue Service. Will you please help us?"

"I'll try."

"Do you know a Seamus O'Doul?"

"I do."

"Does he attend your service?"

"He does."

"Did he make a large donation to your Church?"

"He will."

Rockville Remember...

Just take a look at the City of Rockville in the year 2000!! A neat little town with a population of about 302. There was a song the young people sang "Rockville, Rockville, We love you...Population 302!" The original houses and businesses along Main Street, starting just west of the Granite Quarry, around the Church and a block just bordering along the North and the Sauk River. Then later (1960's-70's) new homes cluster around the John Clark School and County Road 8, this is typical growth. Times were changing..many meetings/discussions, and finally a vote of ALL the residents of the Township area, including the city of Pleasant Lake, three legal entities petitioned and got the okay to form one six mile by six mile City!! With lakes, farms, a river and Creek etc., Rockville then became the 4th largest city in the State of MN (landwise)!!! That's a different MAP and it wasn't too long and it changed again. Currently Rockville is six miles wider and five miles long. Not quite square! Enjoy the memories, Tудie 252-3017.
