National Senior
Citizens Day -
August 21st!

Some people celebrate Senior Citizens Day on August 14th as it was the day past US President Franklin Roosevelt signed the Social Security Act in 1935. However, in 1988 Ronald Reagan, who was the US President at the time, declared August 21st to be National Senior Citizens Day.

This observance was established in honor of senior citizens in the US who made positive contributions in their communities. The day was also created to bring awareness of social, health, and economic issues that affect senior citizens.

- Ways to get involved:
- Take an older adult to coffee and ask them to share their story. Ask them to share their proud moments or cherished life’s accomplishments.
 - Send a personal note of thanks to any or all the older adults who have made a positive impact on your life.
 - Take them to a movie or cook them a meal. Better yet, have them over for lunch or dinner.
 - Help with household or yard chores.

The possibilities are endless! But, most importantly, let them know you care!

For the Road

Two guys were discussing their aging wives. One was quite sure his wife was going deaf. The other guy gave him a suggestion to test her hearing. “Here’s what you do.

Start about 40 feet away from her, and speak in a normal conversational tone and see if she hears you. If not, go to 30 feet, then 20 feet, and so on until you get a response”.

So, that evening, she’s in the kitchen cooking dinner, and he’s in the living room, and he says to himself, “I’m about 40 feet away, let’s see what happens”.

“Honey, what’s for supper?” No response. So, he moves to the other end of the room, about 30 feet away. “Honey, what’s for supper?” No response.

So, he moves into the dining room, about 20 feet away. “Honey, what’s for supper?” No response. On to the kitchen door, only 10 feet away. “Honey, what’s for supper?”No response. So, he walks right up behind her.

“Honey, what’s for supper?”

TIME, CHICKEN!!!”
